

Sep 08 2015

Commonwealth Capital Receives WBENC Certification for 8th Year

Commonwealth Capital Corp., a firm that specializes in structuring information technology, medical technology and material handling equipment leases for Fortune 500 and investment-grade U.S. companies, has received its national recertification as a Woman's Business Enterprise by the Women's Business Enterprise Council PA-DE-sNJ for the eighth consecutive year.

"We are pleased to be recertified as a woman-owned business" stated Springsteen-Abbott. We want to continue to expand into new markets and the WBENC certification provides us with opportunities to learn and grow".

Founded in 1997, WBENC is the leading women-owned registering authority in the United States. Their certification process includes an in-depth review of the business and a site inspection to confirm it is at least 51 percent owned, operated and controlled by a woman or women. In March of this year, WBENC recognized 50 Top Fortune 1000 corporations for exhibiting exemplary leading supplier diversity programs, including Allstate, AT&T, Dell, Pitney Bowes, and Raytheon.

Founded in 1978, Commonwealth Capital Corp. is a national equipment leasing and financial services company with locations in Clearwater, Florida and Greater Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Posted by: The DI Wire

© Copyright 2013–2015 The DI Wire, a service of Quincy Media, Inc. All Rights Reserved.